

Thesis title : Guidelines for Development The Military Training System Of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle

Researcher : Miss. Supaporn Arsa

Degree : Master of Arts (Security Studies)

Thesis Supervisory Committee : 1. Colonel Wanlop Dangyai Chairman
2. Colonel Dr. Werachart Palakawong na ayuttaya
3. Colonel Sarayut Boonjue

Date Of Oral Defense : 24 September 2014

ABSTRACT

The purposes of this research (1) were to evaluate the Military Training of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle. COBIT is based on officer of Military Training center, Director of Military Training And military students (2) to study the development of the Military Training of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle.

The population in this research ; 78 officer of Military Training center ,13th Military Circle, 138 Directors of Military Training and 2,802 1st year class military students of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle 2,802 people and specify 350 people for a sample. The tool for research is questionnaire to assess the Military Training of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle. CIPP Model and interview with structure of Guidelines for Development The Military Training of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle. The statistics used in data analysis were descriptive statistics (Descriptive Statistics) consist of the average standard deviation.

The result of this research were :

1) The result of evaluation of Military Training of Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle every sides showed compliance of every sides was high. The output's mean was higher than the context and environment. The processing and the supporting factor's mean lower than the other side.

2) Once the issues in the assessment of factors. (Input) to set the interview for developing common approaches are : 1) preparation of the library to provide students with the opportunity to gain more knowledge from textbooks by arrangement to enhance in historical room. 2) practicing study materials like projectors, audio, map, compass and binoculars which should be controlled by the TDD and put them in the unit's organization for available all time and return for fixing when damaged 3) Staffs created and account of supplies, documents issues of supplies. Teacher should predefine plan about issue of supplies training aid following the training plan. And should be adjusted according to the guidelines of the Army Logistics 4) Training center should perform its duty and responsible for overseeing the bathroom, cleaning classrooms 5) Military Training Center. Should train teachers and students, including permanency administrative staff in this field.

Recommendations :

1. Military Training Center, 13th Military Circle should create action plans for short and medium term to prepare and operate the following year.
2. The media and some stuff were very worn are difficult to repair, should not increase more expenses.
3. Military Training Center. Should establish a permanent training camp which composed of accommodation for teacher and military students, Training Division, train station and other facilities.
4. Increasing opportunities for military students were selected to attend. Military or the examination only a group of military students. To attend military or the examination of a major military students. In order to incentivize Those entering military training course. With the intention of training, discipline And proud to be a student of the military.