

Thesis Title	Factors Related to Non - Formal Education Services to Community of the Primary School in Ratchaburi Province
Name	Teerasak Iamsa-ard
Concentration	Adult and Continuing Education
Department	Nonformal Education
Academic Year	1997

ABSTRACT

The purposes of this study were to investigate the factors of the school Administration's position and school that have related to nonformal education services to Community. Instruments were developed by the researcher, data were collected from 108 school's masters in 9 Amphoe of Ratchaburi's Primary School in academic year 1996. These data were analysed by Percentage, Mean, SD. and Chi - square respectively.

The result of the studies are as follows : Non - Formal Education services to Community has been the middle level from 10 services namely 1) Information Knowledge 2) Occupation 3) Agriculture 4) Health 5) Invention and Craft 6) Religion and encourage the unity of Thai Culture 7) Environment conservation 8) Democratical Encouragement 9) Sport and Recreation 10) Others.

Non - formal Education Services to community of the Primary School are found that information knowledge service is the most popular and the factors related to Non - formal Education Services to Community are listed in priority are : 1) Attitude of the school's master to Non - Formal Education Services to community 2) the Cooperation of religious leader 3) the Distance from home of the school's master to school 4) the Knowledge and understand of nonformal Education Services to Community of school's master 5) the area of school 6) the size of school 7) the co - operation from community leader 8) the ratio teacher of and Student 9) Educational level. 10) Budget allocation 11) the school master's experience 12) the Location of School 13) Sex.

These 13 factors are related to nonformal education services to Community at statically significant at 0.01.