

Abstract

This is the research to study about the meaning of the vote of loving among women loving women' including the couple lives belief and the relationship between woman under the meaning of Heterosexuality affair and the objectives of this research were :

1. To study about the meaning in term of loving affair among women loving women'
2. To study about the couple lives belief and the negotiation as woman among her friends nearby
3. To study about each couple lives for the message of women loving women'

Using approach

To identify and stress about the meaning of sex, gender and sexuality and the way of sexuality as corrective system using the social variable meaning and supreme Radical feminist concepts and explain the belief concepts of patriarchy. The way of motherhood and wifehood, the sexual affairs in term of compulsory sexuality and the concepts of discipline and punishment. They stated about the efficient human control mechanism, which the way of their own thinking were controlled. However, the mentioned control method didn't comply by that ways because the human activities always opposed to nature surrounding and something under resistance of negotiation.

Methodology

This is the qualitative research and the conceptual framework was all facts were created by social construct by humankind. This research was done through giving meaning by human and narrative approach of 8 woman loving women and 4 couple lived together at least 5 years to understand about interpretivism by studying the importance of the participation in research procedure of the students.

The result of the research

We found that in term of women loving women', she defined herself as normal woman and this was her choice for her own decision and these was the reflection of new current lives though, women loving women' was the different way from social frame such as the acceptance of daughter's role and bachelor woman's various duties as the expectation of society and they only wanted to show their freedom.

The belief of Married lives of women loving women' would stress about non-sustainability among secondary relation belief of each one and experience in each one to study about the sexual mobilization which was not in term of static situation. Meanwhile, they caused some of learning process and new meaning concept of modern couple lives. The negotiation of new discipline or norm in different sexuality, the experience and using couple lives into the new meaning, the dynamic couple lives among women loving women'. The adaptation of thinking process of couple lives, the dynamic and specific pattern of different couples. The using framework of women loving women' regarded as the challenge towards the power of belief in sexual belief among modern Thai society.