ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The research is supported by a graduate research scholarship (2010) from the National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT). I gratefully acknowledge Rajamangala University of Technology Lanna for Ph.D. scholarship. The MM5-RCM outputs were provided by the Atmospheric Physics Research Unit, Faculty of Science, Chiang Mai University on The Thailand Research Fund (TRF) research project. The daily observational data were provided by Thai Meteorological Department (TMD).

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Jiemjai Kreasuwun for her advice, valuable suggestions, and encouragement throughout this work. I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to Dr.Siramas Komonjinda, Dr.Wonchai Promnopas, Dr. Chakrit Chotamonsak, Dr.Sukrit Kirtsaeng, Prof. Dr. Gobwute Rujijanagul, Mr. Teerachai Amnauylawjarurn, Mr.Chainarong Raktham, and friends who gave me the possibility to complete this thesis.

Finally, I'm very grateful for my parents and my sister. Their understanding and love have encouraged me to force myself to work hard.
