ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation could not have been accomplished without the significant support, advice and encouragement from those who have provided me knowledge and wisdom.

First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my thesis supervisor, Prof. Dr. Aree Wiboonpongse, for her guidance in every aspect, research perspective, helping me improve and providing valuable suggestions on my doctoral work, which I will never forget. She provided me absolute understanding, motivation, enthusiasm, encouragement, and continuous support with high patience.

In addition, my heartfelt appreciation goes to my co-supervisor Prof. Dr. Songsak Sriboonchitta and Assoc. Prof. Kanchana Chokthaworn for their devotion of time, effort, assistance and guidance. I also wish to express my greatest appreciation to the Chairperson of my thesis examining committee, Mrs. Wilawan Tanrattanakoon, senior advisor in policy and plan (plan and policy analyst, advisory level), the National Economic and Social Development Board, Thailand and former director of Office of the National Economic and Social Development Board, Chiang Mai. Committee, Assoc. Prof. Somchai Ongprasert, for making this educational journey an enlightening experience.

I genuinely acknowledge the generous financial support from National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT) in 2013. I thank all the others who contributed assistance, whose names are not mentioned here individually.

Lastly, and most importantly, I forever owe my beloved family for their love and companionship along with continuous, spiritual and unceasingly support throughout my life and look forward to seeing my success. I could never have gone through without their support. To them, I dedicated this thesis.

I am responsible for any errors or inadequacies that may appear in this dissertation, the responsibility is entirely on my own.
