ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis can be succeeded by receiving assistance, encouragement and guidance from my major advisor, Dr. Uthaiwan Suthisansanee throughout my co-advisors, Asst. Prof. Somsri Charoenkiatkul and Dr. Warangkana Srichamnong for their support and counsel. I especially thank Dr. Saranya Srisuwan, the external chair committee of the thesis, for her valuable suggestions.

This research work is supported by the grant from The National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT) in 2015.

As well, I would like to thank Dr. Kalyarat Kruawan for access to lab facilities and provision of equipments. I also thank Ms. Parunya Thiyajai for laboratory techniques. I also thank all educational and research supporting staffs for their helpfulness and my friends from Food Science for Nutrition graduated program, Institute of Nutrition, Mahidol University for their great friendship. Most importantly, I sincerely thank my family for their love, kindness, encouragement and everything that push forward me to success.
