

Abstract.

The book is aimed at teaching English writing for beginners. It consists of 3 chapters, all starting with writing at the sentence level and ending with writing in a paragraph form and/or a translation practice which emphasized the points learned in that particular chapter. The appendice contain some grammar rules for reference. Learners will have a lot of practices that will enable them to write long grammatical sentences fluently.