

GEOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Khon Kaen University Campus lies near 102° 49' east longitude as the 16° 28' north parallel at the altitude of between 165-205 m.s.l.. It is where the exposed soil is red, sandy, less organic matter and lateritic in character, together with rocksalt (NaCl) deposit in certain lowland spots. The prevailed climate is seasonal monsoon producing high rainfall between May to October, with average temperature about 34-35° C. No rainfall but still high precipitation is recorded in cold season between November to February with average temperature about 4-10° C. The condition is dry and drought due to high seepage between March to May with high temperature between 36-42° C.

Map I

To Udon

Highway Route No. 2

To Khonkaen Downtown

To Loey

Highway Route No. 12

To Khonkaen Downtown