

Thesis Title: Administration Development of Cooperative Operators in Yala Province

Researcher: Mr. Chana Innupat Major: General Management Year 2011

Abstract

This research aimed to 1) study the performance of the cooperative operators in Yala Province, 2) study the administration of cooperative operators in Yala Province, 3) compare the performance characteristics of cooperative operators in Yala Province, and 4) compare the administration of cooperative operators in Yala Province. The sample group of this study comprised 334 cooperative operators in Yala Province. The tool employed in this study was questionnaire. The statistics used in the analysis were percentage, mean, standard deviation, t-test, one-way analysis of variance, and Scheffe's matched pair comparison.

The study results found that:

1. In average, it was found that the performance of cooperative operators in Yala Province with regard to cooperation and human relation, work knowledge and learning, fastness of operation, work quantity and quality, and decision, were in high level in all aspects.

2. In average, it was found that the administration of cooperative operators in Yala Province with regard to planning, leadership, control, and organization management, were in high level in all aspects.

3. Concerning the comparison on the difference of performance characteristics of cooperative operators in Yala Province as categorized by the individual characteristic variables, it was found that the performance based on different gender, age, education, operational term, salary, current position and type of cooperative was not different.

4. Concerning the comparison on the administration of cooperative operators in Yala Province, it was found that the administration based on current positions was different at statistical significance of 0.05, that based on while gender, age, education, level operational term, salary, and type of cooperative was not different.

In conclusion, the results of this research can be used by the management of the cooperative in Yala Province to develop their managing skills, improve work effectiveness and to increase the capacities in the work place.