

Samniang Wongkam 2011: The Study of Mathematics Learning Achievement of Prathomsuksa Three Students on "Multiplication" by Selected Teaching Strategies at Wattanon School, Changwat Ang Thong. Master of Science (Mathematics Education), Major Field: Mathematics Education, Interdisciplinary Graduate Program. Thesis Advisor: Associate Professor Siriporn Thipkong, Ed.D. 157 pages.

The purpose of the research was to study mathematics learning achievement of prathomsuksa three students on "Multiplication" by selected teaching strategies at Wattanon School, Changwat Ang Thong

The population was twenty one prathomsuksa three students at wattanon school, Changwat Ang Thong in the second semester of the academic year 2010. The research instruments were 14 lesson plans and the 20 items of mathematics learning achievement test with the reliability 0.89.

The result showed that mathematics learning achievement of prathomsuksa three students on "Multiplication" by selected teaching strategies after teaching was higher than before teaching and was higher than 70%.

---

Student's signature

---

Thesis Advisor's signature