

Pornpimol Orn-Norm 2011: The Study of Family Relationship by Using Play Activity Package with Reuse Materials. Master of Education (Early Childhood Education), Major Field: Early Childhood Education, Department of Education. Thesis Advisor: Associate Professor Pattamavadi Lehmongkol, Ph.D. 130 pages.

The purposes of this research were to study family relationship by using play activity package with reuse materials. Target population used in this research were 5 families having a third year kindergarten children from Kaset Home Economics Kindergarten, Faculty of Agriculture, Kasetsart University. Target population was selected by purposive sampling technical. The instruments were questionnaire for parents, play activity package with reused materials and observation from on family relationship. Content analysis was used to analyze the obtain data.

Results indicated that parents and their children showed behaviors of hug, kiss and pat their children's heads; in communication: parents communicated with their children throughout the activities with admiration and encouragement in activity atmosphere: parents and their children worked together continuously, however, their opinion was unconsensus.

---

Student's signature

---

Thesis Advisor's signature