

RECOMMENDATIONS

There are 2 recommendations for this work. The first one is the x-ray crystallographical of triolein. It would make the beginning creation of molecule structure easier. The second one is the energy of the reaction or activation energy should be calculated by using transition method for the future work.