

The purpose of this thesis is to analyse Chintana Pinchaleow's verses ; emphasis on form, Style and her point of view about society, life and woman.

The result is that Chintana Pinchaleow has followed the classical poetic rules. For her style, she is greatly careful for selecting of appropriate words and figure of speech to narrate and describe the idea. By this way the readers can imagine and agree to her idea efficiently. The point of view about society, life and woman; Chintana Pinchaleow concentrates on Society's problems. She believes that society will be peaceful and happy if the people share their love and help one another. Besides, she believes that "Working is good for anyone... If we work hard, we will succeed". Moreover she thinks woman should behave herself according to Thai Culture.